ARMAND DE BRIGNAC

Commonly known as 'Ace of Spades'. Armand de Brignac is celebrated for both its full flavoured wines and their iconic, showstopping bottles (all the labels on Armand de Brignac bottles are made of real pewter, polished, and applied by hand).

Veuve Clicquot

■ REIMS FRANCE ■

Veuve Clicquot is a Champagne house synonymous with style and innovation. Although the house was founded in 1772, Veuve Clicquot led the way in advancements in the method Champenoise, which changed the way many Champagnes are produced today.

Louis Roederer is a Champagne house of exceptional quality and aristocratic elegance. D deservedly famous for its Cristal Champagne, it is a wine both powerful and delicate to taste. With the precision and balance of flavours, it is no surprise that the Cristal range by Louis Roederer is held in such high esteem.

Krug is a Champagne house which prides itself on its preservation of Savour-Faire. Production at Krug remains very much a human process, and although the procedure may be laborious, craftsmanship and unparalleled quality is guaranteed with every bottle as a result. This unconventional and rebellious style reflects the wines that are produced, which consist of racy and decadent flavours that may take you by surprise.

Laurent-Perrier seeks to produce quality wines based on their signature house style of freshness, lightness and elegance. It is those desired qualities that you will find in the Laurent-Perrier Brut L.P. For a more structured, but equally fresh tasting wine, opt for the Laurent-Perrier Cuvee Brut. Inspired by the era dominated by the reign of French King Henri IV, the Champagne is an original in terms of its history, the way its made, and the design of its distinctive, regal looking bottle.

From its artistic collaborations to the stunning detail featured on Perrier-Jouët bottles, this Champagne house seeks for aesthetic beauty as well as on the palate. The Belle Epoque Rosé available at The Fizzy Tarté is a multi-seasonal wine. It combines delicate and complex harmonies, forming a perfectly balanced wine.

WHAT MAKES A PRESTIGE CHAMPAGNE?

Prestige Champagnes are usually the producer's most expensive wines, and should represent the essence of the Champagne house, as well as be the best Champagne they can make. A typical Prestige Champagne is made exclusively from Grand Cru grapes from the oldest vines. The ageing period in the cellar is maximised, and in some cases, oak barrels are used. The presentation tends to be luxurious, some using specially designed bottles or ornate boxes made from fine wood.

Prestige wine started with Dom Pérignon in 1936 when the house launched its first Prestige Champagne. 'Roederer's Cristal' was admittedly sold at an earlier date to the Russian Tsar, but the first vintage only came on the market in 1945, and not sold until the 1950s.

DOES SIZE REALLY MATTER?

It's not all about size. However, if you are looking to share, or you just LOVE those bubbles, then a classic bottle will probably leave you wanting more.

Luckily for you, we have a solution...

Why not try a Magnum? With a Magnum you can enjoy 1.5ltrs of Champagne (equivalent to 2 bottles or 12 Glasses!)

If that still isn't enough, then let us tempt you with a Jeroboam, holding a mere 3ltrs of Champagne. With the equivalent of 24 glasses, there is more than enough to go around.

PROSECCO

'THIS HOUSE RUNS ON LOVE, LAUGHTER & PROSECCO'

Prosecco is quickly developing a reputation as a premium sparkling wine all over the world, and here at The Fizzy Tarté, we understand why. Our love for bubbles certainly does not stop at Champagne, and we are proud stockists of some of the highest quality Prosecco around.

BEPIN DE ETO

The Bepin de Eto winery produces a range of Prosecco boasting floral aromas and wonderfully fruity flavours. The distinctive tastes are matched with an equally distinctive and stunning bottle that oozes fun and style.

BOTTEGA

Bottega Gold is a sparkling wine that uses Glera grapes grown in the Valdobbiadene hills. This area is close to the Venetian Prealps, and is characterised by a climate perfect for this native variety of grape. The wine is served in showstopping golden bottles which are designed to protect the wine from any source of light, preserving its aroma and freshness.

PÂTISSERIE

Discover a choice of French Pâtisserie that will make the mouth water. Indulge in a classic tarté, or select something more obscure from our diverse menu.

WHAT MAKES A PÂTISSERIE SO SPECIAL?

Pâtisserie is more than just sweet pastry. It is an art.

You are purchasing a fine, handmade product which has required skill and delicacy to create. Tantalisingly delicious and wonderfully unique, pâtisserie is an experience for the mouth and mind.

In France, Pâtisserie Chefs are considered skilled masters of their trade. To create such beautiful delights they need to be expert in intricacy, and have an in-depth understanding of flavours.

Here at The Fizzy Tarté we are delighted to work with Destiny Foods, the only authentic pâtisserie supplier based in the North. We feel that their impeccable standards align with our ethos of providing nothing but quality to our customers.

We hope you appreciate our wide selection of pâtisserie. Whether you enjoy yours with a glass Champagne, or while soaking up the atmosphere with a hot beverage, indulge in the tastiest treats around.
